

No Food Residue

Paper or cardboard take out containers and food wrappers cannot be recycled if there is food residue left on them.

If you are not sure whether the wrapper or container can be recycled, please put it in the trash so it does not contaminate other recycled materials.

To learn more about what is and isn't recyclable, download the Recycle Coach app today

